Relocation Site Announced for Christopher Hubbard

A Santa Clara County judge announced today that serial rapist Christopher Hubbard could potentially live in Palmdale when he's conditionally released, which could be as early as December.

Judge Gilbert Brown said Hubbard, who admitted raping approximately 40 women between 1971 and 1982, made the announcement at a hearing attended by prosecutors from the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office. The judge scheduled a formal hearing in 45 days.

District Attorney Jackie Lacey said her office will work diligently with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and other law enforcement partners to ensure Hubbard, 62, will be closely monitored, as required by law.

"Our priority is to safeguard our residents and make certain Hubbard is obeying all the conditions of his release," Lacey said.
